

I have not recieved one unsoliciated call since the New Jersey law has been in place. Before the law was in place I would receive two to three calls every evening interrupting my diner. please leave the New Jersey law in place.